

Initial version, very rough, made to just quickly show a demonstration

Dish Name

Information About the Dish:

Ingredients:

- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient
- Ingredient

Instructions

1. Here
2. here
3. here
4. here
5.

Filled in Template from the initial version

Souvlaki

This homemade chicken souvlaki recipe takes you to the streets of Athens! Complete with the best souvlaki marinade

Ingredients:

- 10 Garlic Cloves (Peeled)
- 2 TBSP Dried Oregano
- 1 TSP Dried Rosemary
- 1 TSP Sweet Paprika
- 1 TSP Salt and Pepper
- 1/4 Cup White Wine
- Juice of 1 Lemon
- 2 Bay Leaves
- 2 1/2 Pounds of Chicken Breasts
- Pita Bread
- Tzatziki
- Sliced Tomato

Instructions

1. Prepare the marinade. In the bowl of a small food processor, add garlic, oregano, rosemary, paprika, salt, pepper, olive oil, white wine, and lemon juice (do NOT add the dried bay leaves yet). Pulse until well combined.

2. Place chicken in a large bowl and add bay leaves. Top with marinade. Toss to combine, making sure chicken is well-coated with marinade. cover tightly and refrigerate for 2 hours or overnight. Soak 10 to 12 wooden skewers in water for 30 to 45 minutes or so. When ready, thread marinated chicken pieces through the prepared skewers.

3. Prepare outdoor grill (or griddle). Brush grates with a little oil and heat over medium-high heat. Place chicken skewers on grill until well browned and internal temperature registers 160°F on instant read thermometer. Be sure to turn skewers evenly to cook on all sides, about 5 minutes total. While grilling, brush lightly with the marinade

4. Transfer chicken to serving platter and let rest for 3 minutes. Meanwhile, briefly grill pitas and keep warm. Assemble grilled chicken souvlaki pitas.

First, spread Tzatziki sauce on pita, add chicken pieces then add veggies and olives

Updated Visuals to be more aesthetically pleasing

Souvlaki

This homemade chicken souvlaki recipe takes you to the streets of Athens! Complete with the best souvlaki marinade

Ingredients:

- 10 Garlic Cloves (Peeled)
- 2 TBSP Dried Oregano
- 1 TSP Dried Rosemary
- 1 TSP Sweet Paprika
- 1 TSP Salt and Pepper
- 1/4 Cup White Wine
- Juice of 1 Lemon
- 2 Bay Leaves
- 2 1/2 Pounds of Chicken Breasts
- Pita Bread
- Tzatziki
- Sliced Tomato

Instructions

1. Prepare the marinade. In the bowl of a small food processor, add garlic, oregano, rosemary, paprika, salt, pepper, olive oil, white wine, and lemon juice (do NOT add the dried bay leaves yet). Pulse until well combined.
2. Place chicken in a large bowl and add bay leaves. Top with marinade. Toss to combine, making sure chicken is well-coated with marinade. cover tightly and refrigerate for 2 hours or overnight. Soak 10 to 12 wooden skewers in water for 30 to 45 minutes or so. When ready, thread marinated chicken pieces through the prepared skewers.
3. Prepare outdoor grill (or griddle). Brush grates with a little oil and heat over medium-high heat. Place chicken skewers on grill until well browned and internal temperature registers 160°F on instant read thermometer. Be sure to turn skewers evenly to cook on all sides, about 5 minutes total. While grilling, brush lightly with the marinade
4. Transfer chicken to serving platter and let rest for 3 minutes. Meanwhile, briefly grill pitas and keep warm. Assemble grilled chicken souvlaki pitas. First, spread Tzatziki sauce on pita, add chicken pieces then add veggies and olives

Changed so that the Ingredients are much much easier to read

Souvlaki

This homemade chicken souvlaki recipe takes you to the streets of Athens! Complete with the best souvlaki marinade

Ingredients:

- 10 Garlic Cloves (Peeled)
- 2 TBSP Dried Oregano
- 1 TSP Dried Rosemary
- 1 TSP Sweet Paprika
- 1 TSP Salt and Pepper
- 1/4 Cup White Wine
- Juice of 1 Lemon
- 2 Bay Leaves
- 2 1/2 Pounds of Chicken Breasts
- Pita Bread
- Tzatziki
- Sliced Tomato

Instructions

1. Prepare the marinade. In the bowl of a small food processor, add garlic, oregano, rosemary, paprika, salt, pepper, olive oil, white wine, and lemon juice (do NOT add the dried bay leaves yet). Pulse until well combined.
2. Place chicken in a large bowl and add bay leaves. Top with marinade. Toss to combine, making sure chicken is well-coated with marinade. cover tightly and refrigerate for 2 hours or overnight. Soak 10 to 12 wooden skewers in water for 30 to 45 minutes or so. When ready, thread marinated chicken pieces through the prepared skewers.
3. Prepare outdoor grill (or griddle). Brush grates with a little oil and heat over medium-high heat. Place chicken skewers on grill until well browned and internal temperature registers 160°F on instant read thermometer. Be sure to turn skewers evenly to cook on all sides, about 5 minutes total. While grilling, brush lightly with the marinade
4. Transfer chicken to serving platter and let rest for 3 minutes. Meanwhile, briefly grill pitas and keep warm. Assemble grilled chicken souvlaki pitas. First, spread Tzatziki sauce on pita, add chicken pieces then add veggies and olives